PEACEMAKING & THE THANKSGIVING ADDRESS

Monday, November 20
5:30 – 8:00 PM
KRESGE TOWN HALL
FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
FREE PARKING AT NORTH REMOTE

Patricia St. Onge is of Six Nations (Mohawk) and Quebecois descent. She is the author of Embracing Cultural Competence: A Roadmap for Nonprofit Capacity Builders, and holds a Masters of Divinity from the Pacific School of Religion. She is the founder of Seven Generations Consulting and Coaching, a name that is rooted in her Haudenosaunee cultural tradition.

Join us to hear the Haudenosaunee story of the Peacemaker’s Journey and the Thanksgiving Address, followed by a free seasonal feast and celebration.
