The Ethics Bowl is a collaborative yet competitive event in which teams are presented with a series of wide-ranging ethical dilemmas and are asked to analyze them. They are then judged on the basis of their analyses. An exciting tournament, it is also a way for students to gain valuable insight into ethical and philosophical issues.

Visit IHR.UCSC.EDU for more event details.