Reel Work Labor Film Festival
Together to End Solitary

Cruel and Unusual – the Story of the Angola 3 3 Black men, over 113 years in solitary confinement torture in the USA framed for organizing against injustice inside Angola Prison in Louisiana
The film follows their decades-long struggle for justice and the building of a national and international movement to end solitary confinement.

Sunday April 22, 2018, 2-4:30 pm
UCSC Media Theater (Performing Arts M110)
453 Kerr Rd, Santa Cruz, CA 95064

Speakers:
Craig Haney, PhD in psychology, Juris Doctorate (JD), academic specialization: psychology and law. Expert witness in Angola 3’s lawsuit in Louisiana; Ashker V. Brown in California; January 17, 2018 Canadian ban on federal indefinite solitary confinement; and numerous lawsuits on behalf of incarcerated people. UCSC Distinguished Professor of Psychology; UC Presidential Chair, 2015-2018; Co-Director, UC Criminal Justice & Health Consortium.

Marie Levin, African American woman, organizer, and minister; California Families Against Solitary Confinement, Essie Justice Group, NLGSF Prisoner Advocacy Network, Prisoner Hunger Strike Solidarity Coalition; owner of MOMM’s Pastries, employer of formerly incarcerated people;
sister of Sitawa Nantambu Jamaa, co-author of the Agreement to End Hostilities, and 1 of 4
Principle Negotiators for CA prisoners challenging conditions in California’s Security Housing Units (SHU) and general prison population.

Refreshments following the event by MOMM’s Pastries and others.

Co-hosts: CA Families Against Solitary Confinement, End Solitary Santa Cruz, University of California Santa Cruz

Co-sponsors to date: Peace and Freedom Party Santa Cruz County; Temple Beth El

Parking information: ADA Accessible Free Night and Weekends Meters & Paystations Sales Visitor Parking
Map: http://maps.ucsc.edu/content/media-theater-m110