HSI Public Lecture

“Complicating a Latinx-serving Identity”

Join the HSI team for an engaging dialogue in understanding the complexities of what it means to be Latinx in higher education.

Invited Speaker

Gina A. Garcia, PhD

Assistant professor in the department of Administrative & Policy Studies at the University of Pittsburgh.

Wed. Dec. 6, 2017
12:30-2:00pm
Kresge Townhall

Light lunch will be provided!

About Dr. Gina Ann Garcia: She teaches master’s and doctoral students pursuing degrees in higher education and student affairs. Her research centers on issues of equity and diversity in higher education with an emphasis on three core areas: Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs; postsecondary institutions that enroll at least 25% Latinx undergraduate students), Latinx college students, and race and racism in higher education.

Sponsored by UCSC’s MAPA Hispanic Serving Institute & El Centro: The Chicano Latino Resource Center

For additional information and disability or access needs please contact the Hispanic Serving Institute Sense of Belonging Team: elcentro@ucsc.edu and/or (831) 459-5349