37th Annual
Dickens Universe

July 30-August 5, 2017 • dickens.ucsc.edu

The Dickens Universe is a unique cultural event that brings together scholars, teachers, students, and members of the general public for a week of stimulating discussion and festive social activity on the beautiful Santa Cruz campus of the University of California—all focused on one or two Victorian novels, usually (but not always) one by Charles Dickens.

In 2017, in anticipation of the 2019 bicentenary of George Eliot’s birth, the Universe will feature her novel, Middlemarch.

Speakers to include Jill Galvan, David Kurnick, Helena Michie, George Levine, Summer Star, Joseph Lavery, Ruth Livesey, and Daniel Bivona.
