

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT INVITES!

Looking at School, Fear, and Possibilities: Imagining Futures Under Authoritarian Rule

Professor, Department of Educational Studies
at Ohio State University

Exec. Director of Urban Initiatives, Office of Engagement, Discovery, and Global Education

Muhammad Khalifa

- Muhammad's research examines how urban school leaders enact culturally responsive leadership and anti-oppressive schooling practices.
- Previously a teacher and administrator in Detroit Public Schools, and he has contributed to community-informed education projects in Africa, Latin America, and Asia.

Director, Right2Learn
Dignity Lab

Associate Professor,
School of Education &
Human Development
University of Colorado
Denver

Manuel Espinoza, PhD

- Manuel is a child of desegregation and a Chicano ethnographer working in the scholarly tradition that emerged during the 20th century struggle against racism in the U.S.
- Has shared his expertise by contributing content on dignity in schools to the Cultivating Compassion for Ourselves and Others digital certificate.

Thurs. Feb. 5th, 2026

5-6PM

McHenry 0266 or via Zoom

ZOOM ID: 933 0685 4982

Passcode: 924285

RSVP